PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the American Way of Life and Government shall not be undermined by foreign propaganda, the ideology of which is diametrically opposed to that of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the Bill of Rights shall not be used as a means to distort and destroy the basic principles for which the Bill of Rights stands; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary now, more than ever before, to call upon the American people to do their utmost to act concertedly and with determination to uphold the sacred principles of American Unity, upon which the Bill of Rights is based and defend them from all the attackers:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, December 13, 1934, as in South Dakota and do hereby call upon officials of the State to display the Flag of the United States on all Government buildings on this day and to invite the people of the State to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and prayers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of December, 1934.
